impersonating a police officer. The security officer stated they kicked the suspect out of the tavern for being belligerent and aggravating females.

I walked across the street and spoke to the suspect who was extremely intoxicated. I attempted to explain the situation several times and was interrupted. After several minutes, I told the suspect he was under arrest and told him to put his hands behind his back. I took his left hand and gave it to Officer Finn, then I grabbed his right hand and we pushed the suspect towards the building we were standing near to gain better control and compliance. The suspect at first did not want to cooperate but then allowed himself to be handcuffed. He was taken to the police department for processing. The suspect spoke with Lt. Yandle, and was then transported to the county building where he was charged with intoxicated and disruptive and misuse of 911. He was released with a written promise to appear. The suspect was given a ride to his house after being released by the Magistrate.
