investigation and would be placed under arrest if he did not provide his name and DOB. He denied providing any of his information and was placed under arrest. He had his NC Identification card in his front right pants pocket with his real name and it was not James Johnson. He was then transported to the Police Department. While at the Police Department, the subject stated "lets have a little fun" and started to jerk towards the Officer in an attempt to assault the Officer. He was then placed against the wall, which caused a minor abrasion to his left shoulder and forehead. He denied medical treatment. He was then processed at the Police Department. The subject was then transported to the magistrates office where he was given a secure bond.

While in the jail (where the exchange from PD custody to jail custody), the subject stated to the Officer that "you are going to get yours."
