striking the curb. This subject then took a left turn onto Guyer St from E Lexington Av. This subject continued on Guyer St until the end, where this subject made a right onto Ambassador Ct. This subject then turned into the PVA of 2514 Ambassador Ct and stopped in front of his residence. This subject was taken into custody without incident.

A search of the vehicle was conducted at the scene and I located 2.04 grams of marijuana in two metal containers located on the front seat. This subject was arrested from the scene and transported to the Police Department. At the Police Department, I conducted standardized field sobriety tests on this subject and this subject showed signs of impairment. The driver admitted to smoking marijuana three times today and also using cocaine within the past three days (First stated that it was today, then changed his story and stated he used it on Wednesday).

After conducting the field sobriety test, I transported this subject to High Point Regional Hospital, where he consented to have his blood drawn. This subject was then transported to the County Building and brought before Magistrate Landen where he was charged with driving while impaired, misdemeanor possession of marijuana, driving while license revoked, expired registration, failure to heed to blue light and siren vehicle and issued a citation for failure to maintain lane control. This subject was then able to sign himself out of custody on a written promise to appear. There were no incidents with arrest.
