	On 07/29/2014 at approximately 0114 hours I ran the tag of a vehicle on Burkemont Ave. at W. Fleming Dr. The registered owner came back as not having a valid North Carolina Drivers License and there was a pick up order for his License. I initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle. I confirmed that the driver was the registered owner, Terry Lynn Berry. I issued Berry a citation for no operators license and gave him a receipt for the license I confiscated.

BERRY, TERRY LYNN			105952

I advised Berry that he was free to go but had a question for him. I asked Berry if there were any guns, bombs, or illegal drugs in the vehicle to which he replied no. I asked for consent to search and Berry gave consent. I had Berry step to the front of my vehicle and PSO Conner patted Berry down for weapons. PSO Conner felt a object in Berry`s front right pant pocket and asked Berry what it was. Berry advised it was a socket and PSO Conner asked if he could take it out. Berry advised he could. PSO Conner took it out and handed it to me, I observed it in fact was a socket that had chor boy in one end and burnt residue inside of it. PSO Conner then patted down the subjects front left shirt pocket and felt something and advised me. I felt of the pocket and felt what seemed to be small pieces of rocks wrapped in a piece of paper. I asked Berry if I could remove it and he said yes. Upon opening the piece of paper I observed what appeared to be four crack cocaine rocks. I had PSO Conner place Berry into handcuffs at this point for investigation purposes. I called out Sgt. Moss to my location. I did a cocaine swab test on a piece of a rock and it showed positive for cocaine. I advised Berry he was under arrest. Sgt. Moss made contact with the Burke County Narcotics Task Force and talked to Investigator Dellinger. Investigator Dellinger advised for me to charge the subject and place the crack cocaine and pipe into evidence, and he would be taking over the case.

I called for the next rotation wrecker and had the vehicle towed.

I transported Berry to HQ and logged the evidence and typed up the warrant. There was 0.3 grams of crack cocaine. I then transported Berry to BCDF and served the above warrant for arrest. I finger printed Berry and placed him into BCDF custody.

Evidence tag#-21311. Voucher#-4233.

A copy of this report will be forwarded to Investigator Dellinger.
