	On 7/6/14 I was patrolling the area of Greenlee Ford Rd. and the Greenway PVA. I noticed one vehicle sitting occupied in the PVA of the Greenway. After calling in a suspicious vehicle I talked with the occupants who reported they were going fishing. I noticed there were no fishing poles so I asked for identification from all 3 occupants. I went to my patrol vehicle to check the occupants for warrants. PSO W. Miller observed an open 12 ounce can of Pabst Blue Ribbon inside the passenger compartment of the vehicle and a silver metallic object (which he believed to be a grinder for marijuana) beside the leg of the driver. PSO W. Miller then asked the driver if there was any other contraband in the vehicle and the driver told PSO W. Miller he could search the vehicle.

Once the driver exited, PSO W. Miller asked the driver if he could search his person and the driver lifted his hands above his shoulders and said "go ahead." PSO W. Miller located a small clear baggy of a green leafy substance that appeared to be marijuana. The driver told PSO W. Miller that the substance was indeed marijuana and that they were there to smoke it and drink beer.

I seized the marijuana and entered it into evidence under tag #21231 and I destroyed the grinder. I issued the driver a citation for the marijuana and open container.
