| | On June 25, 2014 at 11:30 pm, I was dispatched to the area of 200 Carolina St Apt A, in reference to a disturbance. When I arrived, I interviewed both parties involved. During the investigation it became apparent that Rosales was the primary aggressor against Gonzalez. Rosales admitted to initially striking Gonzalez in the nose, as well as biting and slapping Gonzalez on the chest and face. This assault was in response to Gonzalez attempting to hide a number in his phone. | | | | | | | | | | | |

During the investigation, Rosales was noticeably irritated with the questions officers were asking related to investigating the assault. Rosales was pointing out that she had marks on her face and arms stating that Gonzalez had grabbed her and pushed her down. Myself and PSO Storie looked closely at the areas Rosales was referring to, but could not identify any red marks or swelling otherwise indicating she had been assaulted.

Additionally during interview, Gonzalez stated that he did grab her and pushed her away because she was, "Slapping and punching me." During the interview, Rosales wanted an ambulance to come and check her injuries. PSO Storie called for an ambulance at this time. When EMS arrived, Rosales requested EMS transport her to the emergency room. Once at the Emergency Room, Dr. Roller assessed Rosales for her stated injuries. Rosales requested an X-ray of her hand. After Dr. Roller reviewed the X-ray, he immediately discharged Rosales without further treatment.

Rosales was taken into custody and presented before Magistrate Whiteside. Testimony was presented from myself and PSO Storie to Magistrate Whiteside regarding the assault and that the assault would fall under domestic violence guidelines (GS 50B-1,Causing Bodily Injury and Having a personal relationship of "persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship". Magistrate Whiteside did not find this case to fall under Domestic Violence because Rosales and Gonzalez did not live together. I served Rosales with a warrant for arrest for simple assault. I transported Rosales to the Burke Catawba Detention Facility where she was held under a $1,500.00 secured bond.
