	On August 17th 2014 at 0332 hours, I arrested William Conley. Burke County Communications received a call from an anonymous subject at 134 Walker Road stating that Conley was threatening to harm other people and was drunk. This was the second time I had responded to a call on this night for Conley being intoxicated. The first occasion was Conley laying on the sidewalk on Burkemont Avenue passed out. I drove Conley back to his residence and told him not to drive, walk, or be out in public while he was intoxicated and passing out. When I arrived the second time to Walker Road, I spoke with a neighbor who said Conley had left to go get something to eat on his bicycle. I drove back onto Burkemont Avenue to try and locate Conley. I saw a bicycle at Dennys and contacted the business to see if he was inside. An employee said a male matching his description was inside and was intoxicated / being a nuisance. The employees said they wanted him removed. I watched Conley leave the PVA of Dennys, walk across Burkemont Avenue to Bojangles, and then walk back to Dennys. I had to slow my patrol vehicle down in order not to strike Conley with it. I made contact with Conley and could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. I had administered a roadside breath test on Conley with the results being a positive reading for alcohol (.20 BAC). I informed Conley that he was under arrest for being intoxicated and disruptive. Conley yelled "motherfucker" twice while being handcuffed. I placed Conley in the back seat of my patrol car and his bicycle in the trunk. Conley began to beat his head into my plexiglass partition and curse me. Conley done this approximately 20 times and eventually caused his forehead to bleed. I transported Conley to the Magistrates office where he was served and transported to Burke Catawba. On the way to Burke Catawba, Conley yelled at me "I`m gonna kill you" twice. Conley also stated "wait till I see you again, I`m gonna make a beeline for you and start swinging". Once at Burke Catawba, the detention officers took Conley to a padded cell where he continued to beat his head into the glass window. I transported Conley`s bicycle to MDPS. Conley came to MDPS later in the day around 1830 hours and retrieved the bicycle from Sgt. Buchanan.
