	I attempted service of the subject earlier in the shift and left a card. The subject called me back so I returned to the house. He was taken into custody without incident and transported to the PD. There I removed him from NCIC. The lab then processed him with updated fingerprints and photographs. I then transported him to the county building where he was brought before Magistrate Billips. Due to his lack of record he was given a $2,000 unsecured bond and released without
