	On 09/05/2014 at approximately 01:30 a.m. I observed a black 1987 Dodge Raider traveling on W. Flemming toward Burkemont Ave. As I approached the vehicle from behind in the patrol car, I asked PSO Huffman to run the license plate on the vehicle. As we came to a stop at the intersection of W.Flemming and Burkemont Ave. I observed the vehicle crossing a total of three lanes while the light was red. The driver also failed to signal the change in lanes. As the light turned green,

ARREST REPORT (Additional Narrative)

the vehicle made a left turn onto Burkemont Ave. I initiated my red and blue lights and pulled the vehicle over for failure to signal and maintain lane control.

As I approached the vehicle, I noticed the passenger in the front seat continuously turned around to watch my approach. Once I reached the driver's side, I introduced myself, gave the reason for my stop and asked for identification from both occupants. The passenger, who came to be known as Destiny Good informed me that she did not have any identification because someone had stolen her wallet. The driver, who came to be known as Shang Hsien Yuan produced a North Carolina drivers' license and the vehicle's registration. As Yuan was retrieving the registration from the glove compartment, I noticed he seemed very nervous. Yuan was sweating profusely and his body continuously trembled. His voice was also shaky and he seemed very short of breath. He also refused eye contact with me. I also observed that Good had red, swollen and bloodshot eyes. Yuan informed me that they had just come from Walmart, and were driving home.

I returned to the patrol vehicle to issue Yuan a written warning. While I was writing the warning, I asked PSO Huffman to use her K-9 Partner and conduct a vehicle sniff. PSO Huffman informed me that Shrek had alerted on the vehicle. See PSO Huffman's supplement report. I asked Good to step out of the vehicle. PSO Huffman asked Good if there was anything illegal in the vehicle. Good stated that there was not, but quickly retracted her statement and informed PSO Huffman that there was a marijuana pipe, a crack pipe and possibly a few Diazepans. PSO Huffman asked Good one last time if there was anything else in the vehicle and Good stated that there was not. I began a search on Good while PSO Huffman and Shrek continued with an interior vehicle sniff. PSO Paterno arrived on scene and conducted a search of Yuan. PSO Huffman informed me that Shrek alerted inside the vehicle. (See PSO Huffman's Supplement.)

PSO Paterno watched Good and Yuan as PSO Huffman and I conducted a vehicle search. Upon searching the vehicle, a glass crack pipe, red straw with residue and a medication bottle with several white crumbs inside of it. Based on the training of my FTO PSO Huffman, she identified the white crumbs as crack cocaine. I then placed Good under arrest for possession of crack cocaine and drug paraphernalia and assisted her into the patrol vehicle. I completed the warning ticket and explained the warning ticket to Yuan. I informed Yuan he was free to leave as there were no charges against him.

I transported Good to the Magistrates Office where I served the warrant on her. I then transported Good the Burke Catawba. Once we arrived Good was stripped searched and $100 was found in her bra. The money was in the denomination of 10 $10 bills. Good was then fingerprinted and released into the custody of Burke Catawba.

Evidence has been logged using Tag # 21335 and voucher # 4307. A copy of the report and evidence voucher will be forwarded to Burke County Narcotics Task Force.
