existed. Captain Whisnant stated that he observed the vehicle turn its` headlights off and back down Sterling Forest drive. Captain Whisnant drove across South Sterling and approached the vehicle, where he observed the driver and passenger exit and attempt to switch driver/passenger. Captain Whisnant identified the driver as Suzanne Loven who stated that she had left her drivers license at home, but did have a valid license. Loven told Captain Whisnant that she didn`t feel good, which was the reason that she was going to allow her adult daughter/passenger to drive. She also stated this was the reason she backed down Sterling Forest Dr as well. A license check reported that Loven`s license were suspended. Additionally, Loven stated that she had been arrested for DWI just this past Friday, July 18 in the same vehicle. Loven reported that her license were suspended during that arrest as well. Loven`s daughter did not have an active drivers license either. I placed Loven in custody for driving during a 30 day revocation and tranported Loven to the Magistrate`s office. Loven made bond and was released at the Magistrate`s office.
