	On the above date and time I was dispatched to McDonalds at 2211 S Sterling St. While I was on the way to the call dispatch advised that the suspect was yelling and attempting to go behind the counter. When I arrived I observed a older white male talking on the phone near the front door. He matched the description of the suspect but was talking on the phone. I walked past the male who I later identified as Christian Rider and walked inside the store. I spoke with an employee who pointed at the man talking on the phone and told me that he was the suspect. I asked to speak with a manager and exited the store to speak with Rider. Outside the store I attempted to get Rider's attention at least three times by saying "sir". Rider seemed to ignore me and continued to talk on the phone. I stood by Rider while he continued his phone conversation. Approximately 30 seconds later the manager, Michelle Penycuff walked outside towards me and Rider. When Penycuff got near myself and Rider he told me he was talking with the "owner of McDonalds". Rider then attempted to hand me his phone to speak with the "owner". I told Rider that I did not wish to speak with the owner. I began to talk with the manager to figure out what had happened inside the store. Penycuff explained that Rider had come through the drive through and paid for his order. Penycuff told me that Rider had then come inside the store and told her that he was shorted $14.00 in change. Penycuff started to explain Rider's actions inside the store. Penycuff told me that Rider was yelling and attempted to come behind the counter. Penycuff also said that Rider's behavior was "scaring" customers. As Penycuff was telling her account of the incident Rider walked over to myself and Penycuff and interrupted and started to talk loudly and point. I asked Rider to allow Penycuff to finish her statement and I would speak with him. Rider continued to talk loudly and I was unable to hear Penycuff. I asked Rider again to stop interrupting and to walk over to my patrol vehicle so that I could finish my conversation with Penycuff. Rider refused and walked within arms reach of me and continued to talk loudly to me. Rider was explaining that he had talked to the owner and that he wanted his money back. During the conversation rider began to point and talk loudly to me. Rider's hand was within 6 inches of my face. Rider seemed angry and I did not feel comfortable with him being so close to me. I wished to create a reactionary distance and asked Rider to lower his hands and step back away from me. Rider complied with my request but continued to speak loudly preventing me from holding a conversation with Penycuff. I directed Rider to stand at the trunk of my patrol vehicle so that I could hear Penycuff but he refused to go to my patrol vehicle. I attempted to ask Penycuff if any threats were made and Rider raised his voice again. I asked Rider to lower his voice again and he asked me "what gives you the authority". I attempted to explain to Rider that I was investigating a disturbance but he continued to talk over me. Rider was still within 5 feet of me and placed his hands in his pockets. Because of Riders demeanor I asked Rider to remove his hands from his pockets and he complied. Rider then began to yell and told me he did not have to remove his hands from his pockets. Rider began to walk to his vehicle and I told him to stop. Rider then told me that I could not order him to stop and asked if he was under arrest. I told Rider that he was not under arrest but informed him that he was detained until I could determine if any threats or assaults had occurred in the incident. Rider again told me that I could not make him stay. Rider was becoming more upset as the conversation continued. I told Rider to stay back from me, keep his hands away from my face, keep his hands away from his pockets and allow me to speak with Penycuff. I turned to speak with Penycuff again and he immediately started yelling and raised his left towards my face pointing his finger and lowered his right hand towards his pocket. I had already told Rider once to keep his hands from his pockets. Rider was becoming more upset and yelling louder. Because of Riders demeanor and his refusal to keep his hands out of his pockets and his refusal to allow me to speak with Penycuff I made the decision to detain him until I could call for backup. I ordered Rider to place his hands behind his back and he complied. I was able to handcuff him without further incident. I attempted to explain why I had detained him and that It was temporary but he continued to yell and interrupt me. I walked Rider to the rear of my patrol vehicle so that I could sit him in the back seat and continue my investigation. At the back door Rider said "Im not sitting in the back seat". I opened the door and Rider refused to sit down. Rider demanded that I contact a supervisor. I asked Rider to sit in the back seat again and he refused. Rider Turned around and faced me and attempted to side step past me towards my trunk. I placed my hand on his shoulder to prevent him from walking away. Rider then started to push against me began to walk to the trunk of the car. I told Rider to stop pushing and turned his body towards my patrol vehicle so that I could control him if he continued to resist. I placed my left knee between his legs and leaned against him to prevent him from pulling away. I used my body weight to hold Rider against the vehicle and told him to stop pushing away. Rider demanded a supervisor again and I told him I would contact one. Rider stopped resisting and I contacted Sgt Triplett. I asked Rider again to sit in the back seat and he refused. Rider said he had a medical condition and could not sit in a back seat. Rather than use force to sit him in the back seat I asked him if he would be more comfortable sitting on the curb. Rider said again he wasn't sitting in the back of the car so I walked him over to a outdoor table and asked him to sit down. Rider complied and I waited for Sgt Triplett to arrive on scene. Rider attempted to get up and I ordered him to remain sitting. Rider complied for approximately 30 seconds and attempted to stand again and reach into his right pocket while handcuffed. I ordered Rider again to stop and sit down and he demanded that I make a phone call for him. Rider complied and continued to sit down until Sgt Triplett arrived. Pso Miller and Sgt Triplett arrived on scene and Pso Miller stood by with Rider so that I could continue the investigation. Sgt Triplett spoke with Rider while I continued my investigation and took down names of witnesses. After my investigation Sgt Triplett checked surveillance video while I stood with Rider. Rider began to complain of a heart condition and asked for EMS. I contacted EMS and informed Rider that they were on their way. Rider then told me that he was not going to get into the ambulance and that we would have to force him to get into the truck. Rider ordered me to remove the handcuffs because they were causing him to have heart problems. Because of Rider`s behavior the handcuff`s were not removed. EMS arrived a short time later and EMS staff began to speak with Rider. Rider was talking loudly with EMS staff and refused to allow them to speak. EMS staff attempted several times to speak with Rider but he would not allow them to speak. After several attempts to speak with Rider EMS staff left the scene. I continued to stand by with Rider while Sgt Triplett investigated the incident. While standing with Rider he told me that if he were to really be mad I would not still be standing. Rider walked close to me and repeated the statement while standing approximately three feet from me. I explained to Rider again that Sgt Triplett was investigation the incident and he would be done shortly. Approximately 15 minutes later Sgt Triplett walked out of the store and spoke with Rider. Sgt Triplett then spoke with me about the incident. Triplett and I made the decision to issue a citation for Resist Obstruct and Delay and release Rider so that he could seek medical treatment. Rider was issued a citation and released.
