	Subject was observed walking sb on S Elm St. near Coltrane Ave. When she saw me she cut across the street and through a yard where she initiated conversation with a resident to avoid contact. As I drove around the area, I could see her peeking around trying to see where I was. Finally contacted her as she was leaving the area. When asked if she had anything that Officers needed to know about she said "no you're free to look." Same was extremely nervous, trembling and spilled her cut of ice tea because she was so nervous. When Officers began to search, syringe was found to be in her front pocket (which she never volunteered initially but told about once search began).

Was charged with same thing two days ago, cited and released without incident.
