	On 08/17/2014 at 02:46, I assisted PSO Walker with a vehicle stop he was conducting during a license checking station. I made contact with Shawntelle Romero. She was sitting in the rear passenger seat behind the driver. PSO Walker was conducting a probable cause search of the vehicle. I asked Romero to step out of the vehicle. I asked her before I began to search her person if she had any weapons or anything illegal on her. She stated she did not. While conducting my search, I found half of a mechanical pencil in her left front pocket containing a white powder residue inside. I continued to search and found two marijuana cigarettes in a plastic bag rolled up inside of her wallet. I also found two, one dollar bills folded up together in the wallet that contained half of a 10 MG Percocet crushed up in a powder form.

Upon a further search of the vehicle, the other half of the 10 MG Percocet was found in a small compartment to the left of the steering wheel. There was also a corn cob pipe with marijuana residue found in the center console. Romero admitted to me, both the half of the Percocet and the corn cob pipe were both hers. I placed Romero under arrest and transported her to the magistrates office where she received a $1,000.00 secured bond and a court date of 09/22/2014. I transported Romero to the Burke Catawba Detention Facility where she was confined.
