	I responded to a call of a careless and reckless driver. The caller provided a vehicle description of a black Lexus and tag number (CEZ-3654). Caller also advised the vehicle was traveling down US 70 toward the city passing on double yellow lines and pulled in to BI-LO PVA. Upon arrival to the PVA I located the only vehicle matching that description. I noticed a subject, Shawn Baker trying to get in to the vehicle but was struggling with the door locks. observed him for approximately a minute trying to get into his vehicle.

While approaching Baker I noticed he appeared to be impaired. His pupils were constricted, he was breathing hard and was very lethargic. His speech was slurred and acted hard of hearing. I asked Baker if he was ok and he replied he was having trouble unlocking his vehicle.

Officer Miller was familiar with Baker having a drug history and believed his impairment was due to drugs. Officer Miller asked consent to search his vehicle and he responded "I would rather you did not". Officer Miller then asked if there was anything in the vehicle that was illegal, Baker replied there may be some marijuana. Officer Miller and myself then searched the vehicle and found a small container containing marijuana. The search was done due to the admittance of illegal drugs inside of the vehicle.

I issued Baker a citation for the possession of marijuana. Due to Baker`s state of impairment he was not allowed to drive away. He called his mother who responded and gave him a ride home.
