	On 09/03/2014 I responded to 120 Morganton Heights Blvd, Walmart reference to a shoplifter in custody. When I arrived I spoke to the loss prevention employee, Brittney Dale. She advised that the suspect, Sandra Kay Kincaid had exited the store with some items she had not purchased. Dale took Kincaid back into the loss prevention office where she called public safety to report the incident. I then spoke to Kincaid who appeared to be in distress and continued sobbing. was afraid for anyone to see that she was inside the office and would run behind the door every time it opened. Kincaid was holding onto a large pocketbook. I asked her if there was any items in the pocketbook that I needed to be aware of, she said no that she, Dale had already looked. She then proceeded to dig into the pocketbook, I stopped her and took the purse. I asked for permission to look in the pocketbook she replied yes. I opened the pocketbook and saw a bank bag with the name of Suntrust Bank. I asked her what was inside the bag and she said, "my money". I opened the bag and observed a large sum of currency. I asked her where she had gotten that much cash. She said that she had won it but, her husband didn't know she played the games at the store, (she never disclosed the name of the store). A count of the currency was conducted by PSO Clark and myself with a total of $10,866.69. When asked again where she had gotten the money, she stated that she had investment properties and had collected the rent. No receipts were located to confirm that the money was hers.

Kincaid was issued a citation for misdemeanor larceny and released until her court date of 09/30/2014. The currency was seized and placed into evidence under evidence tag #21331.
