	I was turning from King St onto Meeting St and heard a female yelling very loudly from the nearby city parking lot. I looked that way and saw the defendant (a white female wearing a blue shirt and shorts) walking towards a male subject who was standing about 200 feet away from her. She was yelling at him and waving her hands. When she got close to him she shoved him in the chest with both her hands. He did not retaliate towards her, but did turn and strike the block wall to his right side. The defendant continued to yell at the defendant and was waving her hand in his face very closely.

I approached the defendant from the rear, told her to place her hands behind her and cuffed her. I placed her in my car while I sorted out what was going on. It apparently was a dispute between the defendant, her boyfriend (William Strickland) and John Hedrick.

I transported the defendant to the magistrates office and she was placed in jail under a secured bond.
