	On September 04, 2014, 0154 I conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle traveling on Burkemont Ave. I was heading on Burkemont Ave toward the city limits when the vehicle pulled onto the roadway from Lowes PVA. I knew based on my training and experience, the businesses located in the area from which the vehicle came were closed at that time of night, and we had also have had several B&Es to the businesses in the past. I ran the tag on my MDT and observed the vehicles driving. The vehicle stayed in the right lane and put on its turn signal as if to make a right into Glenwood Hills Apartments. The vehicle continued past the entrance as if to turn into the entrance to Dollar General. The roadway splits into a one lane road after this entrance. The vehicle made a sudden left jerking motion and almost hit the curb to get into the left lane to keep traveling on Burkemont Ave out of city limits. The DMV information came back on the vehicle and the registered owners license were suspended. I turned on my red/blue lights at the entrance to Morganton Honda and the vehicle stopped at the 100 block of Royal St. I made contact with the occupants of the vehicle. After engaging in conversation with the subjects and asking for driver`s license, both subjects appeared nervous by not making eye contact and the driver`s hands were shaking. I asked where they were headed and both said they were heading back to Burnsville, NC when they got turned around. The driver, Jeff Murphy 9/9/1973 advised me he had a suspended license. The passenger was discovered to be Angie Michelle Murphy. I went back to my patrol vehicle to write a citation and discovered both Jeff and Angie had prior drug charges. I had PSO Huffman and K9 Shrek in route to my location. PSO Huffman arrived while I was writing my citation and started to conducted a sniff of the vehicle. While in the process, PSO Huffman advised to occupants to put their hands on the roof of the vehicle, while she conducted her vehicle sniff. I was sitting in my patrol vehicle writing the ticket when I noticed Officer`s getting the occupants of the vehicle out. I was later advised PSO Huffman had PSO Storie and PSO Kursch get the occupants out due to the suspicious movements of front passenger. PSO Huffman advised the female dropped her hands from her the roof and was messing around the crotch area of her pants. I exited my patrol vehicle to assist the other officers. I got Jeff out of the vehicle and with consent, I searched the driver for weapons. I asked Jeff why he thought it was a good idea for him to be driving with a suspended license. Jeff reported he was taking his sister Angie to meet a friend at Ingles on Carbon City Rd. Jeff reported he did not know who the subject was and that he only knew it was a female in a black Chevy Trail Blazer. PSO Huffman informed me, K9 Shrek had alerted on the vehicle. PSO Huffman searched Angie and located a bag of pills which she later told me was located in Angie`s underwear, which explains her movements in the car. PSO Storie continued to search the vehicle and located a black bag with 4 syringes, 2 sets of pliers, filters, a lighter and a spoon. PSO Storie also located a brown leather wallet which was in the front passenger seat of the vehicle. The brown leather wallet was claimed by the female. Upon search of the wallet, 24 $100.00 bills, totalling in $2,400, was located in a BB&T envelope. There was also another $20.00 bill located in her wallet. PSO Huffman and myself counted the orangish red pills with E 10 on them. The pills were discovered to be Opanas and there were a total of 40 dosage units. Due to the amount of money and pills located on the subject, we believed it could possibly be trafficking. Sgt Buchanan made contact with the on-call Burke County Task Force Officer. After writing a citation to Jeff, I arrested Angie and transported her to the Burke County Sheriffs Office to speak with Inv. Dellinger of the Burke County Narcotics Task Force. While at the Task Force Office, I turned over the Opanas, $2,420 cash, and drug paraphernalia to Inv. Dellinger. After Inv Dellinger interviewed Angie, I transported her to the Burke County Magistrate`s Office. Angie was given a $25,000.00 secured bond with a court date of 09/05/2014. I transported Angie to Burke Catawba where she was fingerprinted and placed into the custody of Burke Catawba for confinement.
