began checking all three subjects through NCAware to see if had any outstanding processes. I had started to issuing Oates a warning citation when PSO Stotts arrived. I had PSO Stotts starting finishing issuing my warning ticket on my MDT as I conducted a vehicle sniff with my K9 partner Shrek around the vehicle.

I started at the drivers side head lamp as I do every vehicle sniff. I worked my way around counter-clockwise. As we approached the front passenger door, and `B` post, Shrek went from his mouth open tongue out, heavy breathing to his mouth closed soft and concentrated breathing, as well as perking his ears high, and wagging his tail fast. This is Shrek`s alerting behavior that he has located the presence of the odor of narcotics. Shrek began to scratch on the seam between the `B` post and front passenger door. This is Shrek`s indication that he has located the presence of the odor of narcotics. PSO Stotts was still working on my warning ticket, so I got his attention to help me get the passengers out of the vehicle. As PSO Stotts got Oates, out of the vehicle, Oates advised PSO Stotts she had a baggy of marijuana in her pocket.

I placed Shrek in the front passenger door as I do every vehicle sniff. Shrek went to the drivers seat crease between the center console and began showing his alerting and indicating behaviors as noted above. Shrek then picked up a cup holder ashtray slinging it with his mouth. As I was getting Shrek out of the vehicle, Oates admitted to several roaches were in the ash tray. This explains Shrek`s behavior of slinging the ashtry. I have trained with Shrek by having hid narcotics in his reward. Shrek would locate the presence of the odor of narcotics and play with his reward. I finished issuing Oates warning citation for the head lamp and expired tag. I then issued her a citation for simple possession of marijuana and released her.

The marijuana and several roaches in the ash tray have been entered into evidence under tag# 21254 and evidence voucher ID: 4248.
